CONSTITUTION FOR LEISNOI VILLAGE
(a.k.a. Woody Island)

PREAMBLE

We, a group of Alaskan Native people, who constitute Leisnoi Village (a.k.a. Woody Island) do hereby declare and assert our tribal sovereignty and freedom as people with common bonds of association and interest, and as such, do ordain and institute this Constitution to promote and ensure the social, economic, political and cultural needs of our people.

NAME

The name of this organization shall be Leisnoi Village (a.k.a. Woody Island).

ARTICLE I – TERRITORY & JURISDICTION

Leisnoi Village (a.k.a. Woody Island) shall have jurisdiction to the fullest extent possible as defined by federal law over all lands and people within its territory as well as over all of its members.

ARTICLE II – MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. - Base Membership: The base membership of Leisnoi Village (a.k.a. Woody Island) shall consist of all persons of Alaska Native descent whose names appear on the final Leisnoi, Inc. membership base roll approved by the Department of Interior for the Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act. Direct lineal descendants of base members and direct lineal descendants of persons adopted into the Tribe shall automatically be eligible for enrollment as members. Members need not reside within the tribal territorial boundaries.

Section 2. - Qualifications for Future Membership: Any person who is of Alaskan Native descent who wishes to apply for membership to the Tribe shall have a right to petition the Council for membership in the Tribe.

Section 3. - Honorary Membership: The Council shall have the power to confer honorary membership on anyone. Honorary members shall have no voting rights or membership privileges.

Section 4. - Loss of Membership: Any member may voluntarily give up their membership. Membership in the Tribe can not be revoked or terminated against the will of the tribal member. However, voting rights and other privileges may be revoked or suspended upon due process by a designated judiciary committee or a court of competent jurisdiction for crimes of moral turpitude, and violation of tribal ordinances and/or the provisions of this Constitution.

Section 5. - Membership Rules: The Tribal Council shall have the power to enact ordinances and resolutions, not inconsistent with this Constitution, prescribing rules and regulations governing membership, including application and appeal procedures, maintenance of the membership roll, loss of membership, relinquishment of membership, and adoption of members.

ARTICLE III – CIVIL RIGHTS

The Tribe shall provide to all persons within its jurisdiction the rights guaranteed by the Indian Civil Rights Act of 1968, as amended. In summary, the tribal government shall:

1. Not prohibit the free exercise of speech, press, religion, or rights of the people to assemble peacefully or file grievances against the tribal government;
2. Not allow unreasonable search and seizure or issue search warrants without probable cause;
3. Not try anyone for the same offense twice;
4. Not make any person testify against him or herself in a criminal matter;
5. Not take private property for public use without paying the owner the fair market value;
6. Not deny a person the right to a speedy public trial. A speedy trial is generally assumed to be a trial within 90 days or less. The accused person must be informed of the nature and cause of the accusation, told about the witnesses against him or her, be allowed to have witnesses testify in his or her favor and be allowed a lawyer at his or her own expense;
7. Not impose excessive bail or fines, nor impose cruel or unusual punishments. Tribal courts cannot impose a penalty greater than imprisonment for a term of six months or a fine of $500.00 or both, for any one offense;
8. Give all persons equal protection under tribal laws;

9. Not pronounce anyone guilty of a crime or civil violation without a fair trial. The tribal government shall not pass an ordinance and charge a person with a violation of that ordinance or change penalties after an incident (Ex Post Facto);

10. Provide anyone accused of an offense punishable by jail time the right to a trial by a jury of no less than six (6) persons.

ARTICLE IV – GOVERNING BODY

Section 1. - Name: The governing body of Leisnoi Village (a.k.a. Woody Island) shall be the Woody Island Tribal Council (hereinafter referred to as the Council).

Section 2. - Composition: The Council shall be composed of five (5) members who shall be elected by a majority vote (fifty percent plus one person) of eligible voting members voting in an election held for such purpose. Until the first election under this section of the Constitution the members of the interim Council shall serve as the Woody Island Tribal Council.

Section 3. - Officers: The officers shall include a President, Vice President and Secretary/Treasurer who shall be elected annually by the members of the Council from among the elected Council members. The Council may appoint such other officers as may be necessary from time to time either from within or outside the Council.

Section 4. - Terms of Office: The terms of the President, Vice President and Secretary/Treasurer, elected by the sitting Council, shall be one year but they may serve consecutive terms. Except as necessary to establish and maintain the staggered terms of the Council, all Council members shall serve three year terms. All officers serve at the pleasure of the Council.

Section 5. - Assumption of Office: All Council members shall take office immediately upon certification of the election.

Section 6. - Conflict of Interest: No member of the Council shall participate in any vote of any matter relating to a member or his or her immediate family unless the conflict of interest is disclosed and the Council has previously determined that a conflict of interest exists. A Council member may be hired by the Council to work for the tribal government, but while so employed he or she shall abstain from participation in matters pertaining to his or her employment.

ARTICLE V – POWERS

Section 1. - General Powers: Except as specifically limited by this Constitution, the powers of the Tribe shall be exercised by the Council and shall include all the inherent powers of a federally recognized tribal government, including but not limited to those specified in this Article which do not violate United States federal law or Woody Island tribal law.

Section 2. - Internal Powers: Consistent with this Constitution, the Council may enact rules to govern its internal procedures and organization and to further define the duties of tribal officers by ordinance.

Section 3. - Other Council Powers: In addition to all powers vested in the Tribe or the Council by existing law and this Constitution, the Tribe, acting through the Council or the Council acting through the President, shall have the following powers:

a. To maintain a roll of the members of the Tribe;

b. To purchase, lease, take by gift, grant, devise or bequest, or otherwise acquire, own, hold, improve, use and otherwise deal in and with money, securities, real and personal property, rights and services of any kind and description, or any interest therein, including any property obtained pursuant to the Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act as amended;

c. To sell, convey, grant, mortgage, pledge, lease, exchange, transfer and otherwise dispose of all or any part of its real and personal property and assets including any property obtained pursuant to the Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act as amended, except as prohibited by United States federal law and in accordance with Section 4 of this Article;

d. To negotiate and enter into contracts with persons and entities of every kind and description, public and private;

e. To borrow and raise money by all lawful means, and to pledge the credit of the Tribe;

f. To employ qualified persons to render professional and technical services as needed;

g. To authorize the advance, expenditure, use, investment and reinvestment of funds on deposit in the treasury of the United States to the credit of the Tribe in such manner and for such purposes as may be authorized by United States Congress;

h. To consult with and advise any and all persons, officers and entities, public and private, concerning subjects and matters affecting the interests of the Tribe;

i. To prescribe the qualifications of members on the Council, to rule on the qualifications and status of those presenting themselves as members, and to determine its membership;

j. To hear and determine or otherwise provide for the hearing and determination of cases, controversies and matters arising within the jurisdiction of the Tribe, and to establish a court or other tribunal to exercise the judicial power of the Tribe;

k. To provide for the establishment of standing committees of the Tribal Council and to prescribe their functions;

l. To exercise the power of eminent domain over land or interests therein within the territory and jurisdiction of the Tribe in conformance with applicable United States federal and tribal law;

m. To exercise the power to tax and to establish tariffs, fees or assessments with respect to any person or entity within the territory and jurisdiction of the Tribe in conformance with applicable United States federal and tribal law;

n. To enact resolutions, ordinances and statutes to safeguard and promote the peace, health, safety and general welfare of the Tribe in conformance with applicable United States federal and tribal law;

o. To conduct and manage the affairs and property of the Tribe, and to provide services to individual members of the Tribe, or to other entities owned by individual members of the Tribe, including corporations organized pursuant to the Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act.

Section 4. - Powers Reserved to the Membership: Except by majority vote (fifty percent plus one person) of those eligible voting members voting in an election, no tribal lands or interests in lands may be sold, encumbered or otherwise permanently disposed of.

Section 5. - Waivers: Nothing in this Constitution shall be deemed or construed to be a waiver of the sovereign immunity of Leisnoi Village (a.k.a. Woody Island), which may only be waived by express resolution of the Council and only to the extent specified in such resolution and permitted by this Constitution and United States federal law. Provided, however, that the Tribal Council shall have the authority to waive the sovereign immunity solely for the purposes of satisfying the conditions or requirements of federal, state, local or private grants or contracts. Waivers of sovereign immunity shall not be general but must be specific and limited as to duration, grantees, transactions, property or funds, if any, of the Tribe subject to the waiver, as well as specific to the court having jurisdiction and applicable law.

ARTICLE VI – ELECTIONS

Section 1. - Meetings: A regular meeting of the membership of Leisnoi Village (a.k.a. Woody Island) shall be held at least once annually. The date, time and place of such meeting shall be determined by the Council. Special membership meetings or elections shall be called by the Council upon the receipt of a petition signed by at least ten percent (10%) of the eligible voting members of the Tribe or unanimous consent of the Tribal Council.

Section 2. - Quorum of Voting Members: A quorum of the voting members shall consist of ten percent (10%) of the eligible voting members voting either in person or by mail-in ballot. Except where otherwise required by this Constitution, any action requiring a vote of the eligible voting members requires attendance at a meeting or by mail-in ballot of at least a quorum to be effective.

Section 3. - Eligible Voting Members: Any duly enrolled member of Leisnoi Village (a.k.a. Woody Island), eighteen years of age or older, shall be entitled to vote in all tribal elections. Any tribal member who has been sanctioned under Article II, Section 4, "Loss of Membership", shall not be eligible to vote.

Section 4. - First Election: A meeting to elect the first members of the Council authorized under this Constitution shall be held within one year of the adoption of this Constitution.

Section 5. - Qualification of Candidates: Only eligible voting members shall be eligible to become candidates for election to membership on the Council and to serve at that capacity. No person shall be a candidate for more than one (1) position in any election. Any person convicted of a crime of moral turpitude in a court of competent jurisdiction, or who has been removed from office for cause under Article VIII of this Constitution shall be ineligible to serve as a member of the Council. Any person removed from office by recall under Article VIII of this Constitution shall be ineligible to serve on the Council for a period of three (3) years.

Section 6. - Staggered Terms: At the first election, the terms of the Council members shall be staggered according to the number of votes each candidate receives. The member with the most votes shall serve for three years, the two members with the second and third highest number of votes shall each serve for two years, and the remaining two members shall each serve for one year. Thereafter, each candidate will be elected to serve three (3) year terms as may be necessary to maintain the staggered terms established under this Constitution. Members of the Council shall hold office until their successors are duly elected and seated, unless removed from office as provided in Article VIII, Section 3.

Section 7. - Election Ordinance: As soon as practicable after the adoption of this Constitution, the Council shall enact a tribal election ordinance. The ordinance shall, consistent with this Constitution, include provisions for conducting all tribal elections by secret and mail-in balloting, nominations of candidates, maintenance of a current list of eligible voting members, the settling of election disputes and other matters related to the conduct of tribal elections.

Section 8. - Election Board: There shall be an election board consisting of an independent body appointed by the Council for each tribal election meeting, whose duties shall be to supervise, administer and conduct the election. The election board shall serve from the time of their appointment until the election has been certified.

ARTICLE VII – VACANCIES

Any office which has been vacated, whether by removal, recall, or forfeiture, shall be filled by appointment of an eligible voting member by majority vote (fifty percent plus one person) of the remaining Council whether consisting of a quorum or not and such replacement shall serve until the next general election. All unexpired terms shall be filled at the next general election for the time remaining in that particular seat.

ARTICLE VIII – POPULAR PARTICIPATION

Section 1. - Initiative or Referendum: The eligible voting members of the Tribe shall have the right to propose and remove legislation and request recall of Council member(s) and vote upon secret ballot to determine whether it will be adopted or rejected. Upon receipt of a valid petition signed by at least thirty percent (30%) of the eligible voting members, the Council shall call an election to be conducted no later than sixty (60) days after the receipt of the petition. An affirmative vote by at least a majority of the voters (fifty percent plus one person) present or voting by mail-in ballot shall be required to determine the issues or questions submitted to the voters. The Tribal Council shall have the right to propose an initiative or referendum upon majority vote of the Council members at a meeting where a full quorum exists. Recall need not be associated with a cause.

Section 2. - Decision of Tribal Members: The decision of the voters in both initiative, referendum and recall elections shall be binding on the Council and the Tribe, and shall remain in full force until amended or rescinded by subsequent action of the voters or until it expires by its own terms.

Section 3. - Removal: Any Council member found guilty by the Council or a designated judiciary committee of behavior involving gross misconduct in office or neglect of duty shall be removed from office if at least a majority of the Council votes in favor of such removal. Voting must be by secret ballot. The accused shall have no right to cast a ballot. Before any vote is taken, the person subject to removal shall be given a written statement of the charges against him or her at least ten (10) days before the meeting of the Council at which the person is to appear. The person shall be given the opportunity to answer any and all charges at the designated Council meeting. If the person subject to removal does not appear before the Council, the Council shall proceed with the vote as scheduled. The decision of the Council shall be final unless over-turned by the authorized judicial committee or a member referendum. No member of the Council shall preside over the meeting at which his or her removal is being considered.

ARTICLE IX – DUTIES OF OFFICERS

Section 1. - President: The President or a designated Council member shall preside over all meetings of the Tribe and of the Council and shall execute on behalf of the Tribe all contracts, grants, leases or other documents approved by the Council. The President shall vote in matters before the Council, and shall have general supervision of all other officers, employees and committees of the Tribe and see that their duties are properly performed. When the Council is not in session, the President or a designated Council member shall be the official representative of the Tribe.

Section 2. - Vice President: The Vice President shall assist the President when called upon to do so. In the absence of the President, the Vice President shall have the rights, privileges, duties and responsibilities of the President.

Section 3. - Secretary/Treasurer: The Secretary/Treasurer shall oversee the taking of minutes of all meetings and shall attest to the enactment of all resolutions and ordinances. The Secretary/Treasurer shall be responsible for issuing notices of all meetings and elections and correspondence of the Council. The Secretary/Treasurer shall work closely with any and all employees of the Council in the preparation of minutes, resolution, general correspondence and financial matters. In the absence of the President and Vice President, the Secretary/Treasurer shall have the rights, duties and responsibilities of the President.

ARTICLE X – MEETINGS

Section 1. - Regular and Special Meetings: Regular meetings of the Council shall be held at least quarterly, the time, place and date to be designated by the Council. Special meetings of the Council may be called by the President and shall be called upon a request signed by a least three (3) members of the Council.

Section 2. - Quorum: A quorum of the Council shall consist of three (3) members of the Council. Except as otherwise provided in this Constitution, no business shall be transacted unless a quorum is present.

Section 3. - Public Meetings: All meetings of the Council shall be open to the membership of the Tribe. However, the Council may recess at its discretion to discuss any matter in a closed or executive session if the general subject matter to be discussed is expressed in the form of a motion. No final or official action may be taken thereon in the closed or executive session.

Section 4. - Permanent Ordinances: Ordinances shall be collected and made available to Tribal members and other affected persons upon reasonable request.

Section 5. - Resolutions: Resolutions shall be collected and made available to Tribal members and other affected persons upon reasonable request.

Section 6. - Meeting Procedures: All meetings shall be conducted in accordance with rules adopted by the Council.

ARTICLE XI – SAVINGS & SEVERABILITY

Section 1. - Savings: All previous ordinances and resolutions of Leisnoi Village (a.k.a. Woody Island) shall remain in full force and effect unless found to be inconsistent with this Constitution or future amendments.

Section 2. - Severability: If any provision of this Constitution shall be declared invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction or an authorized judicial body, the invalid portion shall be severed and the remaining provisions shall continue in full force and effect.

ARTICLE XII – AMENDMENT

This Constitution may be amended by a majority (fifty percent plus one person) of the voters attending or voting by mail-in ballot in an election called for that purpose at which a quorum of thirty percent (30%) of eligible voting members has been established.

ARTICLE XIII – ADOPTION OR RATIFICATION

This Constitution shall be in full force and effect upon the adoption by a majority (fifty percent plus one person) of the eligible voting members voting by mail-in ballot in an election called for that purpose at which a quorum of thirty percent (30%) of eligible voting members has been established.
